

Chap Educator, #103004

DUTIES: The CHAP Educator is responsible for planning, organizing, implementing and evaluating educational trainings for CHA/Ps through the Community Health Aide Training Center (CHATC). Located in Sitka, Alaska.

MINIMUM REQUIREMENTS: Physician (PA) or Family Nurse Practitioner Certification. Preference given to applicants with Alaska State License. Must have National Certification as a PA or FNP. Must receive and maintain state licensure to retain position within 60 days of hire. Prior teaching and clinical experience preferred. KNOWLEDGE, SKILLS, AND ABILITIES: Teaching knowledge, concepts and skills. Knowledge of health care concepts. Knowledge of drug calculation and medical equipment. Clinical assessment skills and patient treatment. Teaching skills and understanding of adult education. Oral and written communication skills, team work skills.